Report on Sustainability Stewards: Green Initiative by Students

Sustainability Stewards: Green Initiatives by Students

Title: Sustainability Stewards: Green Initiatives by Students

Date: 18.8.2020

Time:11.00 am

Plat form: online zoom meeting

On 18.8.2020, A. Saranya conducted an insightful online session titled "Sustainability Stewards: Green Initiatives by Students" via Zoom. The program aimed to engage and inspire students to take an active role in environmental sustainability through innovative green initiatives. The session highlighted the importance of sustainability in today's world and provided students with practical ways to contribute to a more sustainable future. Over 25 students participated in online session. A. Saranya began the session by defining sustainability and discussing its importance in addressing environmental challenges such as climate change, resource depletion, and pollution. Saranya explained that students, with their creativity and energy, are well-positioned to lead the charge in green initiatives. She encouraged students to think globally but act locally, implementing sustainable practices in their daily lives and communities.
