Seminar on

"Case Study Research: Learning from Real-world Examples"

Date: 07-07-2022

Time: 10.00 am – 12.00 pm

Discussion & Insights:

The aim of the seminar is to equip researchers with the knowledge and skills to effectively design, conduct, and report case study research, ultimately contributing to the advancement of their respective fields.

The following are the key insights seen:

- Case study research is adaptable to a wide range of disciplines, including social sciences, business, education, and healthcare.
- The in-depth approach of case studies allows for a comprehensive examination of the subject, offering detailed insights into the processes, relationships, and contextual factors involved.
- Case studies bridge the gap between theory and practice.
- Adhering to ethical guidelines ensures the integrity and ethical soundness of the research.

The Research and Development Cell at Narayana Pharmacy College organized a seminar on "Case Study Research: Learning from Real-world Examples" on July 7, 2022. The seminar aimed to educate participants on the importance, methodology, and applications of case study research. The speaker emphasized the significance of case study research in understanding complex phenomena in real-world settings. She discussed how case studies can provide in-depth insights and contribute to theory building and practical applications.

Participants gained insights into the methodology, design, and execution of case studies. The seminar emphasized the importance of rigorous data collection and analysis to derive meaningful conclusions. Real-world examples were presented to illustrate the application of case study research across various disciplines. Attendees were exposed to the strengths and limitations of this research approach and its potential for generating rich, contextualized knowledge. The seminar concluded with a discussion on the ethical considerations and challenges associated with case study research, fostering critical thinking and ethical awareness among participants.

Program Report

Seminar Title: International Perspectives on Intellectual Property Rights

Date: 27.08.2022

Venue: Narayana Pharmacy College, Main Auditorium

Organized by: IPR Cell, Narayana Pharmacy College

Resource Person: Mrs. P. K. Devibala, Associate Professor, Dept of Pharmaceutics, Gokula Krishna College of Pharmacy, Nellore.

The Intellectual Property Rights (IPR) Cell at Narayana Pharmacy College organized a seminar on “International Perspectives on Intellectual Property Rights” on August 27, 2024. Students will gain an understanding of intellectual property rights (IPR) from a global perspective, highlighting global practices, challenges, and opportunities.

Key Points discussed in the Seminar:

- Introduced the fundamentals of intellectual property rights.
- The Resource people give a brief over view on global IPR laws and treaties.
- Explained the challenges and opportunities in global IPR practices.
- Elaborated the insights into the role of IPR in fostering innovation and protecting intellectual property globally.

The Resource person also added a note on key international laws and treaties governing IPR, such as the Paris Convention, the Berne Convention, and the TRIPS Agreement. She explained the roles of international organizations like WIPO and the WTO in shaping global IPR policies.

Program Report

Seminar Title: Ethical Issues in Intellectual Property: Balancing Innovation and Fair Use

Date: 29.11.2022

Venue: Seminar Hall, Narayana Pharmacy College

Organized by: IPR Cell, Narayana Pharmacy College

Resource Person: Dr. Y. Prasanthi, Professor, Seven Hills College of Pharmacy, Tirupati, Chittoor D.T, A.P, India.

The Intellectual Property Rights (IPR) Cell at Narayana Pharmacy College organized a seminar on “Ethical Issues in Intellectual Property: Balancing Innovation and Fair Use” on 29.11.2022. The seminar aimed to explore the ethical challenges in intellectual property (IP) law, focusing on the balance between protecting innovation and ensuring fair use.

Objectives

- To understand the ethical dimensions of intellectual property rights.
- To discuss the balance between encouraging innovation and ensuring fair use.
- To examine case studies highlighting ethical dilemmas in IP.
- To provide insights into best practices for ethically managing IP.

The Resource person has presented several case studies that illustrated ethical dilemmas in intellectual property, such as the debate over patenting genetically modified organisms (GMOs), the challenges of digital rights management (DRM), and the implications of pharmaceutical patents on access to medicines. He discussed the ethical considerations involved and the impact of these cases on public policy and practice.

Program Report

Seminar on "Interdisciplinary Approaches in Research Methodology"

Date: 16.12.2022

Venue: Narayana Pharmacy College, Seminar hall

Organized by: IPR Cell, Narayana Pharmacy College

Resource Person: G. Vajramma, Associate Professor, Dept of Pharmaceutics, Rao's College of Pharmacy, Nellore, A.P, India.

The Research and Development Cell at Narayana Pharmacy College organized a seminar on "Interdisciplinary Approaches in Research Methodology" on 16.12.2022. The seminar aimed to highlight the importance of interdisciplinary approaches in research methodology, emphasizing collaboration across various fields to enhance research outcomes.

Objectives

- To introduce the concept of interdisciplinary research methodology.
- To discuss the benefits and challenges of interdisciplinary research.
- To showcase successful interdisciplinary research projects.
- To provide strategies for effectively integrating interdisciplinary approaches in research.

The Resource person provided an in-depth analysis of the benefits and challenges associated with interdisciplinary research. He highlighted how collaboration across disciplines can lead to new perspectives and breakthroughs, while also discussing the practical challenges, such as communication barriers and coordinating efforts among diverse teams.

Program Report

Workshop Title: Data Visualization in Research: Communicating Insights Effectively

Date: 28.01.2023

Venue: Narayana Pharmacy College, Seminar hall

Organized by: Dept of pharmaceutical chemistry, Narayana Pharmacy College

Resource Person: Mr. Y. Sanjeev Reddy, Associate Professor, Dept of Pharmacology, Swathi College of Pharmacy, Nellore, A.P.

The Research and Development Cell at Narayana Pharmacy College organized a workshop on "Data Visualization in Research: Communicating Insights Effectively" on January 28, 2023. The workshop aimed to equip the students with the skills and knowledge to create an awareness about how to visualize the data, enabling them to communicate their research findings more effectively.

The Resource person adds a note on visualization of data in an effective manner. Later the person who is presenting uses the MS Excel and word which have different types of options in the menu like Bar charts, Scatter plots, Line graphs and Pie charts. The speaker also added a note on Biovia Discovery Studio Visualizer where the students can see the molecular structure of proteins which is a very important criterion in Drug discovery and Development.
