Report on Awareness program on Youth for Change: Engaging Students in Social Responsibility

Date: 19-7-2019

Time: 11 AM

Venue: Narayana Pharmacy College

On July 19, 2019, Narayana Pharmacy College organized a program entitled An awareness program on Youth For Change: Engaging Students In Social Responsibility aimed at engaging students in social responsibility. The program was inaugurated by Dr.K.Harinatha Baba, principal, 76 students participated in the program along with the staff, Dr. S.Sujatha, Ch.Lalitha and M.Krishnaveni, A.Avinash. The event was designed to raise awareness about the importance of social responsibility and to encourage students to actively participate in community service initiatives to educate students about the concept of social responsibility, to take part in community service activities and to develop a sense of empathy and community awareness among students. The discussion focused on the role of youth in social development and how students can make a difference in their communities. Students took a pledge to commit to social responsibility and to actively participate in community service initiatives. The event successfully engaged students in social responsibility and demonstrated the power of collective action. By participating in community service activities, students not only contributed to society but also enriched their own educational experience. Narayana Pharmacy College remains committed to fostering a culture of social responsibility among its students and will continue to organize similar initiatives in the future.

Report:

The "Empathy in Action: Student-Led Social Responsibility Projects" event, held on October 29, 2019, at Narayana Pharmacy College, was a significant initiative aimed at fostering a culture of empathy and social responsibility among students. Conducted by Dr. K. Harinadha Baba, Principal, and Dr. S. Sujatha, Vice Principal, the program engaged 30 students, faculty, and staff in various activities designed to promote social responsibility and community engagement to cultivate empathy and a sense of social responsibility among students and to empower students to initiate and lead social responsibility projects. Welcome address by Dr. A. Harinadha Baba, highlighting the importance of empathy and social responsibility and inspirational speech by Dr. S. Sujatha, encouraging students to take an active role in addressing social issues. This increased awareness and understanding of empathy and social responsibility among student, development of practical skills in project planning, execution, and community engagement and enhanced motivation and commitment to participate in social responsibility projects. The program effectively achieved its objectives of cultivating empathy, empowering students, and fostering social responsibility.
