Report

On November 15, 2020, Narayana Pharmacy College hosted an enlightening awareness program titled "Inclusive Initiatives: Promoting Equality and Social Justice," conducted in the context of the college's commitment to fostering an inclusive and equitable academic environment. Under the leadership of Principal Dr. K. Harinadha Baba and Vice Principal Dr. S. Sujatha, and coordinated by M. Krishnaveni and A. Kiranmai, the event aimed to deepen students' understanding of social responsibility and Samajadharama. The program engaged 50 participants in discussions and activities designed to raise awareness about social inequalities and the importance of inclusivity. Through informative sessions, students were introduced to key concepts related to equality and justice, fostering a greater appreciation for diverse perspectives and experiences. At the end of this session students understood the importance of the equality and social justice. It is an essential component of society to form a good bonding between the humans. The initiative's successes were evident in the active engagement and thoughtful dialogue among participants. Students responded positively, expressing a heightened commitment to social justice and a readiness to champion inclusivity in their communities, reflecting the program's impactful message and the college's dedication to fostering social responsibility.

Report on "Ethics in Action: A Discussion on Social Responsibility in Student Activities"

Date: February 18, 2021

Venue: Narayana Pharmacy College seminar hall, Nellore

Participants: 50

On February 18, 2021, Narayana Pharmacy College hosted an insightful discussion program titled "Ethics in Action: A Discussion on Social Responsibility in Student Activities." The event aimed to explore the integration of ethical principles into student activities and to highlight their broader implications for social responsibility. The program was led by Dr K Harinadha Baba, principal and dr S Sujatha, vice principal. Over 50 students along with staff participated in the program. The program commenced with an introduction by the event coordinator, who outlined the objectives of the discussion and emphasized the importance of ethical considerations in student activities. The program concluded with a summary of key takeaways and a call to action for students to incorporate ethical considerations into their activities and leadership roles. The discussion program "Ethics in Action" successfully met its objectives by fostering a deeper understanding of the role of ethics in student activities. We extend our gratitude to all the participants, panelists, and organizers who contributed to the success of this program.

Students talk about real-life case studies highlighting ethical dilemmas and social issues.

Report

Date: March 28, 2021

Venue: Narayana Pharmacy College, Nellore Campus

Principal: Dr. K. Harinadha Baba

Vice Principal: Dr. S. Sujatha

Coordinators: M. Krishnaveni, A. Kiranmai

Participants: 27

On March 28, 2021, Narayana Pharmacy College conducted a significant environmental initiative titled "Green Generation: Plantation Program." The event aimed to promote environmental responsibility through active participation in tree planting, thereby enhancing the green landscape of the college campus. Under the leadership of Principal Dr. K. Harinadha Baba and Vice Principal Dr. S. Sujatha, and with coordination by M. Krishnaveni and A. Kiranmai, the program engaged 27 students in a hands-on approach to environmental conservation. Students participated in planting a variety of trees around the college campus. This activity not only contributed to increasing the green cover but also helped in educating students about the importance of trees in maintaining ecological balance and combating climate change. The "Green Generation: Plantation Program" successfully highlighted the college's commitment to environmental stewardship and engaged students in meaningful environmental action.
