REPORT ON SAFETY TRAINING AND AWARENESS

Date : 23-09-2022

Time : 9.30 AM

Venue : Narayana Pharmacy College, Seminar hall.

Narayana Pharmacy College conducted a program on Safety training and awareness on 23-09-2022. The program is conducted under women empowerment cell of NPC. Over 20 students participated in the program along with staff. Dr.K.Harinadha Baba, Principal, addressing the gathering. Chairman of women empowerment cell Dr.S.Sujatha, vice principal delivered a valuable speech about girl safety. Program starts with light lightening. Mrs.A.Kiranmai delivered speech about safety tips while travelling in buses and trains and she said that Safety training and awareness plays a major role in ensuring a secure environment in any organization or community. Effective safety training programs educate individuals about potential risks and the best practices to mitigate them. These programs cover various aspects, including emergency procedures, personal safety, and hazard recognition. Recent evaluations show that comprehensive safety training significantly reduces workplace accidents and enhances overall awareness of safety protocols. For instance, regular drills and simulations help students respond effectively during emergencies. The program ends with National anthem and vote of thanks by Ms.V.Sujitha.

A REPORT ON ELOCUTION COMPETITION ON RURAL WOMEN EMPOWERMENT

Date : 17th April 2023

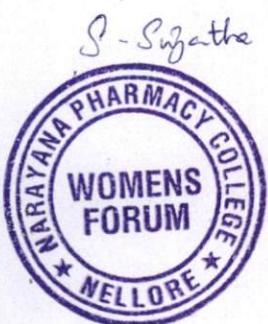

Venue : NPC Seminar Hall, Narayana Pharmacy College

Time : 11:00 AM

Chief Guest: Dr.Harinadha Baba, Principal

Guest of Honor: Dr. S. Sujatha, Vice Principal

On 17th April 2023, Narayana Pharmacy College's Women Empowerment Cell organized an elocution competition on Elocution Competition on Rural Women Empowerment. The event was held at the NPC Seminar Hall at 11:00 AM. 20 students participated in the program along with faculty. The competition aimed to provide a platform for students to express their views on the empowerment of women in rural areas and to foster awareness and advocacy for this critical issue. The primary objectives of the elocution competition were to raise awareness about the challenges and opportunities for empowering rural women. The event began with an inaugural session where the Principal, Dr. K. Harinadha Baba, welcomed the participants and audience. He emphasized the importance of empowering rural women and the role of education in achieving gender equality. Dr. S. Sujatha, Vice Principal, delivered an inspiring speech on the significance of women's empowerment in rural areas. She highlighted various initiatives and programs aimed at improving the socio-economic status of rural women and encouraged students to contribute to this cause through their knowledge and skills. The event concluded with a vote of thanks by the program coordinators, who expressed their gratitude to the Chief Guest, Guest of Honor, participants, and organizers. The winners of the competition were announced, and certificates were distributed to all participants as a token of appreciation for their efforts.

ESSAY WRITING PROGRAM REPORT: "ECONOMIC AND SOCIAL RIGHTS OF WOMEN"

Date : 07-05-2023

Time : 11.00 AM

Venue : Narayana Pharmacy College, Seminar hall

Narayana Pharmacy College hosted an essay writing program titled "Economic and Social Rights of Women" under the auspices of the Women Empowerment Cell. This initiative aimed to spotlight the challenges and opportunities surrounding the economic and social rights of women, emphasizing the need for informed discourse and advocacy. The program commenced at 11:00 AM in the Seminar Hall, attracting a diverse cohort of students passionate about gender equality and women's empowerment. Dr. S. Sujatha, Chairman of the Women Empowerment Cell, delivered the inaugural address, underscoring the critical role of economic and social rights in fostering inclusive development and equitable societies. Over 20 students along with faculty participated and engaged deeply with a wide array of themes, examining issues such as access to education, healthcare, employment opportunities, and legal rights for women. Essays submitted explored the systemic barriers women face in achieving economic independence and social recognition, as well as the transformative impact of policies and grassroots initiatives.
